~~(Not red.)~~

(1) When answering a question you should include the question in the answer and write a complete sentence.

(2) If the prompt asks for 1-3 sentences one sentence is okay.

(3) Write a list like a list, use commas, don't do complete sentences,

and do what is simple

(4) ~~only~~ The name ^{only} goes on
the first page.

(5) Again, cross outs and add-ings
are okay.

SECTION HEADINGS CAN HELP

The poem:
is different —
and can be —
single spaced;

Because it should...
look —
like —
the original,
so you copy the form.

But when not writing
a poem be sure to always double space. And go back to sentences and all that. See, it's simple — really.
